Thank you again for your purchase. Kerafast reagents come directly from academic investigators at research institutions worldwide, who have chosen to make their materials easily accessible to the global scientific community in return for a generous portion of every sale. By purchasing your reagents from Kerafast, you are therefore helping to fund scientific research.

Does your lab have reagents to share? Learn about contributing reagents here, or contact us at Community@Kerafast.com to discuss becoming one of our providing investigators.
